UASA successfully hosts 'Bring Your Child To Work Day'

UASA hosted a fun-filled day, welcoming colleagues and their children to spend a day together in the workplace.

Throughout the day, children had the chance to meet and interact with UASA staff, which gave them the opportunity to learn about the world of work, encouraging an environment of learning and exploring different professions.

By showcasing the important work done by the union and involving their families, UASA demonstrated its commitment to community and education.

As the event concluded, children left with a newfound appreciation for their parents' work and a better understanding of the role of labour unions. UASA hopes to continue to inspire and educate the next generation about the crucial role of labour unions in protecting workers' rights and promoting fair labour practices.
