Keri-Nisa Pillay appointed as UASA Shop Steward

UASA welcomes the appointment of Keri-Nisa Pillay as the first UASA female Shop Steward at Illovo Sezela in KwaZulu-Natal.

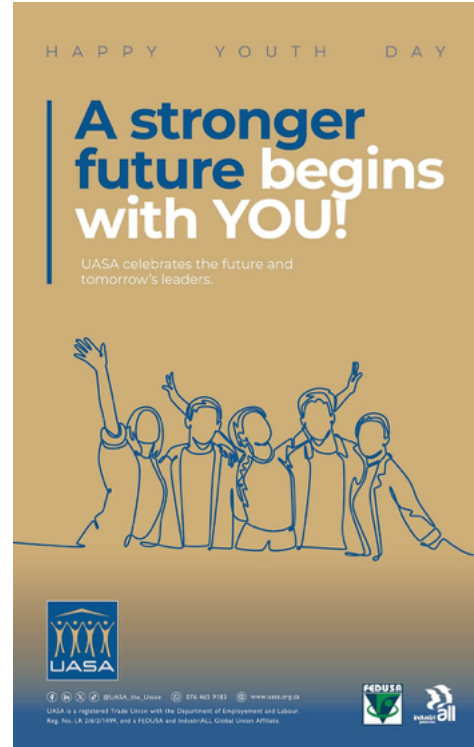

Keri-Nisa's appointment marks an important step forward in strengthening worker representation and promoting workplace growth in the sugar sector. As a Shop Steward, she will play a key role in supporting UASA's recruitment efforts, assisting with administration and driving initiatives that benefit members and workers.

UASA congratulates Keri-Nisa on her appointment. We wish her the best in her role.
